On a separate piece of paper, respond to the following:

1. Rotary is an international business and professional community service organization that emphasizes child and youth health and education issues. Scholarships are one way to help students achieve their goals and become citizens who work for a better community and world. Why do you think you deserve a scholarship from such an organization?
2. Describe your educational and career goals and how you arrived at these choices.
3. List your volunteer service activities. Include your time commitments to each and any leadership positions or recognitions awarded to you for this service. State which one is the most important to you and explain why. (Service activities are those things done primarily for the benefit of others. i.e., blood drive organizer, volunteer youth coach or referee, soup kitchen worker, mentor to a child, reader to a senior citizen, caring for an ill parent or sibling, working to pay family bills.)
4. List your extra-curricular activities. State how many years and in what ways you have been involved in each and any leadership positions or awards (extra-curricular activities are those things done primarily for personal enrichment, i.e., drama, music, yearbook, church, clubs).
5. List your places of employment and dates employed at each. Give your job titles and state any special recognition afforded to you at those jobs.
